THE LITTLE EGGS COLLECTIVE

- About Us -

Little Eggs is an award winning NSW-based performance collective focussed on devised work. Founded in 2015, the Company has produced five original works to date, and performed in both Sydney and Brisbane. All members of the collective who run our Educational Workshops are professional actors, musicians and theatremakers.

Little Eggs is all about an intensive and collaborative process. We work to highlight the skillsets of our performers and are continuously looking for new modes of performance to learn from and challenge ourselves with. Our process usually involves a period of ensemble building work and devising exercises, a period of curating the production itself followed by intensive rehearsal and refinement. We are one of the few companies in Sydney who are devoted to creating original work.

"Little Eggs are making completely different theatre in Sydney, constantly reimagining the possibilities of the theatre to tell stories" NightWrites

The Little Eggs Collective acknowledges the Gadigal Peoples of the Eora Nation, the traditional owners of the land on which we create and perform, and we pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging. We also acknowledge that sovereignty of this land was never ceded.

CHELTENHAM GIRLS HIGH SCHOOL

"I have been eager to work with Little Eggs since mid-2019 after hearing about their company from a colleague. Of all the performance workshops I have run with Stage 6 students, this is certainly the most tailored to the HSC Drama syllabus. Our students participated in an Individual Project workshop where they worked with industry professionals to develop their work. The advice Julia provided to my performers was incredibly valuable and as a teacher who works so closely with the students it is so crucial to get "fresh eyes" on the work. This dramaturgical approach also helped the students to think more critically about their intentions on stage, resulting in stronger monologue performances. Unfortunately with the global impact of COVID in 2020, and the subsequent cancellation of the Group Performance, we were unable to experience the depth of programs Little Eggs can offer but I am already looking to book their Playbuilding workshops in 2021 for my new cohorts. Cannot recommend more!"

GYMEA TECHNOLOGY HIGH SCHOOL

"The Little Eggs Education team were a welcome burst of energy into our Drama community at Gymea. They were able to cohesively integrate and engage students across Stage 5 and 6 with enthusiasm, professionalism and humour. A real highlight was allowing my students to see how collaboration in a real ensemble company works through sharing and owning ideas and realising what is best for a group to move forward. Their passion and lived experience of acting and working within the Theatre community in Sydney brought a new lens for my student to see themselves and their creations through. Mat, Annie and Callum were each able to work with three different year groups on their group devised assessments, giving fresh eyes and ideas to the playbuilding and creative process. My students were energised, felt safe enough to task risks and learned so much from their experience with Little Eggs to take them into their assessments and future devising tasks with confidence. Loved it and couldn't recommend Little Eggs highly enough."

EPPING BOYS HIGH SCHOOL

"The boys learned key skills for devising under their expert guidance and had loads of fun in the process! A big thank you to the wonderful creatives who gave their time and energy to nurture our boys' theatrical understanding."
